

No One Ever Told Me About You

Tempo=110
Slow Ballad

Music & Lyrics
Douglas Campbell

He was stand- ing at the throne of God, not know- ing where he was, Or how he'd e - ven got - ten to that place. As he gazed u - pon His ho- li - ness, he heard Him call his name "You're not writ - ten in My book of life, I don't re - cog - nize your face." He had no i - dea, what was meant, by these words which He had spoke, but a mul - ti - tude of an - gels wept, and then the book was closed. When he next be - came a - ware, all of the glo - ry now was gone, and in it's place, dark clouds of fear, now filled his emp - ty heart, For be - fore him lay an end - less waste, of lost souls bound in shame, Their_ an - guished cries, would ne - ver cease, his_ own joined their re - frain.
Chorus
And he cried... No one ev - er told me 'bout You! No one ev er said that all the words You spoke we're true! No one ev - er told me, No one ev - er told me,
